Fall Portraits 2013

Oh Hello There!

Are you looking for a unique portrait photographer that loves to have fun? I'm your girl! I specialize in newborn, children and family portrait photography. I would love to capture your family this fall and have an amazing time in the process. Skip the lines at the portrait studios and have some real family fun as I capture a session you'll treasure for a lifetime. I limit the number of sessions that I take per day so I can offer each family my absolute best. You bring your adorable family dressed and portrait-ready and I promise I'll bring the fun!

I have outlined several dates and portrait events over the next few months, find the session that fits your family best and reserve your spot. You'll notice that all prices include your session fee, something printed and digital files. I am passionate about having your images printed and offer a wide variety of options for you. I work closely with my clients to create amazing portrait art for their homes. My process is simple and my images are adorable! A photograph never grows up, lets update your portraits this fall!

xo, Tiffany

REALLY GOOD REASONS TO CHOOSE ME AS YOUR PHOTOGRAPHER

5

My Style - I love bright images of families laughing, playing and having fun. I do pose groups and take nice formal shots but I also like to allow for images to happen naturally and enjoy taking a storytelling approach to capturing. I like to use props like chairs, blankets, toys or things that are special to the family to help tell the story.

4

I am super fun! I have prizes, candy, games and more. I work hard to get kids to smile. Sometimes crazy noises come out, silly faces or high kicks....seriously, whatever it takes. I know most husbands are not big fans of family portrait time, however most husbands walk away from my sessions saying that was way better than they ever expected!

3

Not all kids or husbands show up portrait ready and I get that. I leave plenty of time for warm up in my session schedule. It sometimes takes children up to 20 mins before they want to play and I am okay with that in fact sometime I will put my camera down until I gain full trust. Once your family is warmed up it is amazing what we can capture.

I love your input and ideas! I have lots of my own ideas that I'll bring to your session but I love to get Mom involved in the creative process. Have you seen something on Pinterest? Want to remember your children playing a certain way? Maybe recreate an old photo? I love to collaborate with my Mom's!

I value your time and investment! At Appletini Photography careful planning goes into each session. I know and appreciate what it takes for you to get your family ready for portraits and I plan to deliver. I don't end a session until I know that I have something you'll proudly display in your home. I love my clients and go above and beyond to give them the best session possible. I also love to work with my clients to design wall art, gifts and products that last a lifetime.

The Santa Experience

Saturday November 30th

Only 12
available!

Do you want to give your children a unique way to meet Santa this year? Great news, I've been on the good list for so long that Santa loves capturing special portrait sessions with me! These sessions will begin with your child writing a special letter to Santa, prepare milk and cookies and finish with meeting and hand delivering their letter to SANTA!!! Santa will talk with each child and have enough time for a personal experience. I will capture your child as they enjoy the magic of The Santa Experience along the way.

Oh yeah...Santa couldn't possibly leave Mrs. Clause in the North Pole, she'll be there too!

Santa Session $150 - include up to 3 children
Approximately 20 fully edited images for viewing in a private gallery. - Your choice of 10 high resolution images to download with printing rights.
$50 print/product credit *Additional children $15

What to Expect

Images take 7-10 days to process and then will be available online password protected. From the online store, you'll be able to download the images included in your package, use your print credit and design your holiday card. All orders are reviewed by me and sent to a professional lab for printing!

PROFESSIONAL QUALITY PRODUCTS

All products are ordered from a professional print lab using top of the line paper and inks. Yes there is a difference! What makes it so different? Metal! Professional grade paper has a high metal count that protects your images from fading or deterioration and is guaranteed to last over 100 years. Also the inks are different, most commercial printers like Wal-mart or CVS only use 4 colors, professional labs use 256 different inks to make sure your images are vibrant and true color! The difference is STUNNING!
